December 1, 2008

The Knightdale Public Safety Committee met at 6:30 p.m. at the Knightdale Town Hall, 950 Steeple Square Court, Knightdale, NC.

Present: Councilors Jeff Eddins and James Robinson

Staff Members Present: Seth Lawless, Assistant Town Manager; David Simmons, Interim Police Chief; Tim Guffey, Fire Chief; Chris Darden, Sergeant

Approval of Minutes for November by Councilor Eddins and Councilor Robinson

Discussion of Governor's Highway Safety Grant

Sergeant Chris Darden explained that due to Knightdale Police Department's participation with the Governor's Highway Safety Program that the department has received a grant for $19,850.00. With that grant money Sgt. Darden is requesting to purchase a 16ft Equipment Trailer, a Light Trailer & Generator, 150 Traffic Cones, 4 sets of Signs/Stands, Traffic Vest and Flashlights. The Town would have to fund the money up front, but the Governor's Highway Safety Program would reimburse the Town at one-hundred percent when they received the receipts for the purchases. Sgt Darden requested that the Local Government Resolution be brought in front of Town Council for approval.

Assistant Town Manager Seth Lawless stated Councilor Eddins would bring the Resolution in front of Town Council at the Council Meeting that would follow The Public Safety Committee Meeting.

Councilor Eddins inquired as to whether the speed bumps had been installed on Aqua Marine. Assistant Town Manager Seth Lawless stated that the speed bumps were purchased but still needed to be installed.

Councilor Eddins inquired as to the progress of the Guard Rails that needed to be installed in Emerald Point. Assistant Town Manager Seth Lawless stated that would be turned over to Tracy Pedigo to complete.

Meeting adjourned at 6:47 p.m..
